LA GRINGA CASTING CALL

Director: Chloe Sanchez-Stora

Filming ONE day in the week of: 11/7-11/14

Title: La Gringa

Synopsis:

In this dramedy set in modern-day Miami, Colombian-American teen Carla navigates a family get-together alongside her younger sister Sofia. Known as the gringa, Carla struggles to feel like a true part of the family, especially when comparing herself to her sister who excels in these situations. Will Carla ever be able to shed the label, or will she forever be La Gringa?

Roles available:

Carla Garcia (Lead)

(Female, White-passing Latina, 18-22)

A first-generation Colombian-American, Carla has two sides of herself. When speaking English, she has a quiet yet silly personality, confident in every word she utters. She isn't always the leader in the conversation, but when she interjects, she has the whole room laughing. Conversely, when speaking Spanish, Carla shuts herself off, her family never discovering her true personality.

Special Requirements: Must speak Spanish

Sofia Garcia (Lead)

(Female, Latina, 18-22)

As Carla's younger sister, Sofia looks up to her and really prioritizes family, leading to her development of better social and Spanish skills. Overcompensating for Carla's lack of personality in front of her family, Sofia is the life of the party; Constantly cracking jokes and forming deep connections with anyone who crosses her path.

Special Requirements: Must speak Spanish

Mariana (Featured Role)

(Female, Latina, 35-55)

A woman that has always been in the sisters' lives, but they have never quite figured out how she is related to them.

Special Requirements: Must speak Spanish
